CHRISTIAN FORMATION:

Are you still undecided about which ministry to join? Do you like working with children? Would you like to share the richness of the Catholic faith with the children of our parish? Then catechetical ministry is the ministry for you! Please consider joining the K-5 Catechist team! We need catechists for grades 1, 3, 4, and 5. We are looking for energetic and dedicated adults to teach the youth of our parish. VIRTUS and background check, Pathways training, and occasional meetings are required. Supplies, support, and materials are provided. Contact Tiffany in the parish office if you are interested (DRE@holyfamilyvb.org).

Freedom: A well-rounded school gives students freedom to recognize their capabilities and individual potentials. Something as simple as putting toys away or helping set placements for snack time can build good character that will last a lifetime. At the Day School, we foster an atmosphere where thinking, questioning, and imagining are encouraged while enhancing understanding, empathy, and communication skills. Preschool is your students' introduction into the education system; while it is fun and engaging for the children, it is an important responsibility for both parents and teachers. Holy Family Day School accepts students age 2 1/2 (toilet trained) through Kindergarten. With Freedom comes knowledge, and with knowledge comes understanding. We will work to engage your children in a warm, caring, structured environment to help them understand how important they are in the world.

Currently We Have Openings for 2 ½-Young 3's Classes and Our Older 3 Year Tuesday/Thursday! If you have any questions or would like to take a tour of our school, please call 481-1180. Helpful information can be found on our website (www.holyfamilydayschool.org).

Do You Know What Your Elementary School Student is Doing After School? Holy Family Day School has a great program limited to 20 students for after school care. Students attending John B. Dey, Trantwood, or Alanton Elementary School may ride a VBCPS bus to Holy Family. The program is structured to include playground time, snack time, homework time, centers, and other activities.

Box Tops For Education: Box Top collection is a year-round program and we are so pleased with the excellent response to this fund raiser for the school. The box outside the Chapel is the place to drop off your collection.

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come

Revelation is the first "ongoing" study in The Great Adventure Bible Study Program. In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass.

Join us for Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come beginning September 27. We will be offering this program between the Masses on Sunday mornings (9:30-10:45 a.m.) and on Monday evenings at 7:00 p.m. beginning September 28. To register for the study, please complete a registration form found on the parish website or in the family room. Please contact Tiffany at DRE@holyfamilyvb.org with any questions.

The New Evangelization – Dr. Scott Hahn’s Perspective

What, then, is the key to the new evangelization? I remember wondering that myself, back in 1992. As if on cue, I opened L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican's newspaper, and saw the headline: "Base New Evangelization on Eucharist."

It caught my eye not only because it seemed to answer my question, but also because it made no sense to me whatsoever. Its proposal was counterintuitive. The Eucharist, after all, is for the already initiated, the folks who are showing up for Mass. Evangelization is supposed to reach outward. Yet the headline sat atop a homily by Blessed John Paul in which he referred to the Eucharist as the "beginning" (not the end!) of our outreach, "the source" and "the basis of the New Evangelization."

Soon others picked up on this theme. Cardinal Francis George of Chicago gave an address on Catholicity and the new evangelization, and he drew the same conclusion: "All evangelizers proclaim who Christ is; Catholic evangelizers proclaim a Eucharistic Christ."

In 2000, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger told a group of catechists that the Church has always begun its evangelistic efforts at the altar. "The Church always evangelizes and has never interrupted the path of evangelization. She celebrates the Eucharistic mystery every day, administers the sacraments, proclaims the word of life – the Word of God, and commits herself to the causes of justice and charity. And this evangelization bears fruit."

The Mass reminds us that evangelization is a gift before it is a task. It is receiving before it is doing. And we cannot share what we do not first possess.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWS

Thank you to all the Parishioners who supported our recent Barbecue dinner.

July Family of the Month is the Greg Hayes Family. They are always there to help especially when it comes to preparing food at one of our events or a church event.

July Knight of the Month is Joe Murray. Joe was extremely helpful in one of our events in July by doing a little bit of everything at the event.

Kids Fishing Day: Probably some of you saw pictures of kids with fishing rods or fish this past weekend. On August 5 the Knights held the "28th Rodgers Kids Fishing Day" at the Lynnhaven pier. We had 189 kids from the Boys and Girls Club of Virginia. They caught over 500 fish, had a hot dog (cooked by the Hayes family), received a tee shirt, and were able to take home a fishing pole.

"CARE FOR OUR EARTH:"

How urgent and critical is the climate change issue for Virginia? Before giving an answer I refer to Stephen Nash, a Journalist and Professor in residence at the University of Richmond, who conducted intensive research on climate change in Virginia. He concluded that there are a number of climate actions Virginia could initiate to tackle the issue. He listed 12 actions, two of which would be: rewrite real estate disclosure laws so that purchasers of coastal and river properties are given an honest picture of the threat of sea level rise and what they will and won't be allowed to do to protect their property. Second, to enact natural areas management plans that would halt further commercial logging and roads on public lands and manage our forests in anticipation of hotter climates. He raised the question, Would those actions be enough to ward off serious climate disruption? He claimed, no, but they would be a beginning and a long step forward. Stephen Nash presents the problem as one that is so advanced that much change is needed in the political, business and individual arenas. My intention for providing this information is not "to sound the alarm" but to keep us from developing a lackadaisical or overconfident attitude towards climate change.

"It must be said that some committed and prayerful Christians, with the excuse of realism and pragmatism, tend to ridicule expressions of concern for the environment. Others are passive; they choose not to change their habits and thus become inconsistent. So what they all need is an "ecological conversion," whereby the effects of their encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in their relationship with the world around them. Living our vocations to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience."
